We all feel sad or discouraged sometimes and need some encouragement. Some ways to encourage others are in the list below. Some are words to say, and others are things to do. Words go across, down, backward, up, and diagonally. The leftover letters form a message for you.

In the Bible there is a story about friends who helped.

The Man Who Came Through the Roof

Long ago there was a man who could not walk. His friends heard about Jesus, that He could heal people. So they decided to take their friend to see Jesus. They each took a corner of their friend's pallet and carried him to see Jesus.

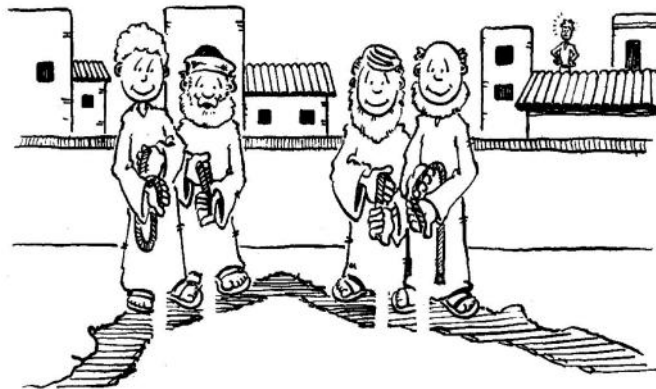

When they got to the house where Jesus was staying, it was so crowded they could not get to Jesus. So the friends carried the man up to the roof, cut a hole in the roof, then gently lifted the man down through the hole and laid him at Jesus' feet.

Jesus said to the man, "Get up. Pick up your pallet and go home to your friends."

The man got up. He could walk! All the people were amazed.

Reach about it! Mark 2:1-5, 11-12

They Tore Up the Roof!

Connect the dot at the first sentence box with the dot at the correct picture. Your line will go through a letter. Write that letter in the first space below. Do the same with the second sentence, and so on.

Jesus was preaching in a house. Many people came to hear him. The house was full!

Four men made a hole in the roof. They lowered their paralyzed friend down to Jesus.

Jesus said to the paralyzed man, "Young man, your sins are forgiven."

Some teachers of the law said to themselves, "Only God can forgive sins."

Jesus knew what they were thinking. He said, "Is it easier to forgive his sins or heal his legs?"

Then Jesus said to the paralyzed man, "I tell you, stand up. Take your mat and go home."

Then the people gave
